Share news

Ask someone in your house what they have been doing. Share your news. Maybe you have watched a good tv programme, or baked a nice cake?

Literacy

We are going to focus on Scottish poems and songs in the next few weeks.

Coulter's Candy, also known as 'Ally Bally Bee', is a famous poem/song written by Robert Coltart who was a former weaver living in Galashiels in the Scottish Borders.

Can you say it out loud?

*Ally bally, Ally bally bee,
Sittin' on yer mammy's knee,
Greetin' for a wee bawbee,
Tae buy some Coulter's Candy.*

You can listen to the poem being sung in full here:

Science

We will look at famous Scottish Scientists and Inventors.

This week we will look at Alexander Graham Bell's invention of the first telephone.

Can you make your own telephone?

Find instructions here:

Art

Weave your own paper/ coloured card pattern. Find instructions here:

/www.twinkl.co.uk/resource/t-t-10805-paper-weaving-instructions

This is quite tricky. Ask an adult to help you.

Go on, challenge yourself!
